

ARON M. DEUTINGER, PSY.D., M.S.C.P.

Curriculum Vitae

EDUCATION

---

- 2012 Post-Doctoral Master of Science – Clinical Psychopharmacology
Alliant International University, California School of Professional Psychology
- Accredited by the WASC Senior College & University Commission
- 2007 Doctor of Psychology – Clinical Psychology/Neuropsychology
Alliant International University, California School of Professional Psychology
- Accredited by the WASC Senior College & University Commission
  - Accredited by the American Psychological Association (APA)
- 2005 Master of Arts – Psychology
Alliant International University, California School of Professional Psychology
- Accredited by the WASC Senior College & University Commission
  - Accredited by the American Psychological Association (APA)
- 2002 Bachelor of Arts – Psychology
California State University, Fresno
- Graduated with Psychology Honors
  - Accredited by the California State Board of Education
  - Accredited by the Western Association of Schools & Colleges (WASC)
- 2000 Associate of Science – Biological Science
Reedley College, Reedley California
- Accredited by the Accrediting Commission of Community & Junior Colleges (ACCJC)
  - Accredited by the Western Association of Schools & Colleges (WASC)

INTERNSHIPS/RESIDENCIES

---

- 2009 California Department of Corrections & Rehabilitation
- 2008 California Department of Corrections & Rehabilitation
- 2007 W. Gary Cannon Psychological Service Center – APA Accredited
- 2006 W. Gary Cannon Psychological Service Center – APA Accredited

PROFESSIONAL LICENSES/IDENTIFICATIONS

---

- 2009 - Current Licensed Psychologist – State of California License # PSY 23164
- National Provider Identification Number (NPI) - 1760736805

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS & MEMBERSHIPS

---

- Psi Chi National Honor Society in Psychology – Granted Lifetime Membership

Alliant International University Alumni Association
California State University, Fresno, Alumni Association

GRANTS, SCHOLARSHIPS & AWARDS

---

2014	National Health Service Corps Grant	$10,000
2013	National Health Service Corps Grant	$30,000
2012	National Health Service Corps Grant	$30,000
2012	Public Service Psychopharmacology Scholarship	$200
2011	Public Service Psychopharmacology Scholarship	$600
2010	National Health Service Corps Grant	$50,000
2010	Public Service Psychopharmacology Scholarship	$400
2005	AIU Graduate Scholarship	$500
2004	AIU Graduate Scholarship	$500
2003	AIU Graduate Scholarship	$500

HOSPITAL PRIVILEGES

---

September, 2019 - Current

Kaiser Permanente San Jose Medical Center

December, 2014 – August, 2019

California Substance Abuse Treatment Facility

January, 2010 – August, 2019

John D. Klarich Memorial Hospital

As Correctional Treatment Center (CTC) 2014-2019

As General Acute Care Facility (GACH) 2010-2014

CLINICAL/FORENSIC/ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

---

September, 2019 – Current

The Permanente Medical Group
Kaiser Permanente, San Jose

Manager - Behavioral Health Psychology

- Provision of assessment/diagnostic evaluation and treatment of adults with mild to severe mental illness.
- Provision of administrative and clinical oversight of staff and services within San Jose Department of Adult Psychiatry
- On faculty with Department of Psychiatry residency program
- Manager/Chief of Behavioral Medicine, San Jose Medical Center. Department provides consultation to physicians across all physical medicine departments and behavioral-based treatment services for the patients they refer. Primary population served is those with simple to complex medical conditions with psychological sequelae.
- Manager/Chief of Chronic Pain Mental Health Program, San Jose Medical Center. Provides psychological-based evaluation and intervention. Includes consultation with surgery and addiction medicine. Provides pre-surgical psychological evaluation for potential candidates of neuromodulator implants.
- Manager/Chief of Clinical Case Management Program, San Jose Medical Center. Provides social and psychological treatment and support for the severely mentally ill population.

May, 2014 – Current

PowerMark Psycholegal Consulting

Private Forensic Practice

- Provides full-spectrum forensic services to the legal community. These services include, but are not limited to, QME/AME, IME, consultation, case analysis, research, review of records, and development of cross-examination questions for mental health professionals.

August, 2008 – August, 2019

California State Prison, Corcoran

Senior Psychologist (2015-2019)

- Member of mental health department executive team.
- Member of quality management team
- Manager of inpatient psychiatric transition program
- Senior in charge of coordination of care with state hospital system
- Senior in charge of Pre-Parole operations
- Senior in Charge and primary evaluator for PC3002 psychological assessments
- Senior in charge of 400-bed Enhanced Outpatient Treatment program
- Department-wide trainer for clinical and lay persons in various mental health related topics, including but not limited to, suicide risk and prevention
- Adviser to Chief Psychologist/Chief of Mental Health on matters of policy, procedure, and operations.
- Experience serving as Acting Chief of Mental Health

Clinical Supervisor (2012-2019)

- Mentoring & clinical supervision of doctoral students, unlicensed psychologists, and unlicensed social workers.

Subject Matter Expert - Psychological Testing (2010-2019)

- Development of State-wide and local policy and procedure for psychodiagnostic assessment.
- Psychological evaluation and consulting services on complex cases often involving differential diagnosis and treatment planning.

Chronic Pain Management Specialist (2010-2011)

- Treatment of non-palliative chronic pain patients using empirically validated biopsychosocial approach.

Staff Psychologist (2008-2015)

- Interdisciplinary Treatment Team Leader.
- Psychodiagnostic assessments and consultative psychological evaluations for adjudication of disciplinary hearings for incarcerated male adults.
- Individual psychotherapy to forensic mental health patients with mild to severe mental illness, dual diagnoses, and chronic pain patients using CBT, biopsychosocial, motivational interviewing strategies, with integration of psychodynamic insight that support symptom reduction, behavioral change, and improved quality of life.
- Group interventions focused on symptom management, anger management, chronic pain, life skills, life incarceration, and preparation for parole.
- Case management services.

March, 2008 – August, 2008

California State Prison, Corcoran

Postdoctoral Resident

- (See functions under Staff Psychologist above)

August, 2007 – March, 2008

W. Gary Cannon Psychological Service Center

Postdoctoral Resident

- Prevention interventions with children ages 12 – 14 targeted as being “high risk” of gang involvement, drug use, failing school, and pregnancy. Services include Individual therapy, group/milieu activities, social skills training, risk assessment, and parent psycho-educational groups.

July, 2006 – July, 2007

W. Gary Cannon Psychological Service Center

Predoctoral Intern

- Grant writing; review and implement policies and procedures within the agency; development of new intake/treatment documentation standards; orient students and interns to agency policy and procedure.
- Prevention interventions with children ages 12 – 14 targeted as being “high risk” of gang involvement, drug use, failing school, and pregnancy. Services included individual therapy, group/milieu activities, social skills training, risk assessment, and parent psycho-educational groups.
- Forensic psychological evaluations for the juvenile justice system and in-house psychological assessments. Evaluations included a variety of measures such as cognitive tests, personality measures both objective and projective, records review, and collateral interviews.

January, 2006 – July, 2006
for

Students Targeted with Opportunities

Prevention

Case Manager/Clinician

- Prevention interventions with children ages 12 – 14 who reside in areas targeted as being “high risk” of gang involvement, drug use, and pregnancy. Facilitate community service projects. Preventive services include daily group/milieu activities, tutoring, boy’s group therapy and social skills training, individual therapy and risk assessment.

May, 2005 – June, 2006

W. Gary Cannon Psychological Service Center

Psychological Trainee

- Adult therapeutic interventions on both an individual and group basis utilizing an integrative approach. Object relations theory was used to assess the origins of current patterns of interpersonal relationships, behavior, and self-concept, Cognitive therapy to access and modify this material, and behavioral interventions to alter contingencies and broaden skill repertoires.
- Child custody evaluations for the Family division of the Fresno County Superior Court. These evaluations included a variety of measures such as cognitive tests, personality measures both objective and projective, parent-child observations, interview, and records review.

June, 2004 – July, 2005

V A Central California Health Care System

Psychological Trainee

- Neuropsychological evaluations of adult US armed forces veterans consisting of interviews, behavioral observations, and multifaceted cognitive testing. Provision of feedback to attending physicians.
- Grand rounds in the geriatric extended care unit, as well as, supportive psychotherapy on the unit for the terminally ill.
- Topic presentations of areas such as traumatic brain injury and metastatic cancer.

- Training for caregivers of patients suffering from dementia.

January, 2004 – May, 2004

Fowler Unified School District

Psychological Trainee

- School assessments for children of all ages, primarily intellectual in nature, to determine qualification for special programs.
- Therapeutic interventions and career counseling for high school adolescents.

RESEARCH

---

August, 2004 – May, 2007

Alliant International University (CSPP)

Dissertation Research – Primary Investigator

- Title: The Cognistat: A Normative Data Analysis of the Neurobehavioral Cognitive Status Examination
- Chairman: Ronald Gandolfo, Ph.D.
- Final Oral Defense (May, 2007)

This was an exploratory analysis seeking information regarding gender, ethnic, and educational differences in performance among the adult population.

August, 2002 – December, 2002

California State University, Fresno

Clinical Psychology Research Assistant

- Supervisor: Christine Edmondson, Ph.D.
- Anxiety & Depression Research - Data entry, selecting and qualifying participants for research, and preparing post-doc residents to conduct structured interviews with participants.

FACULTY/TEACHING APPOINTMENTS

---

December, 2019 – Current

KP Northern CA San Jose Psychiatry Residency Program

Full Faculty, Clinical

- Educating, training, supervising, and developing psychiatry residents at each level (PGY years 1-4) to ensure they progress from focused-supervised beginners to autonomous and skilled psychiatrists and colleagues.

August, 2012 – September, 2019 CSP-COR, Pre-Doctoral Training Program

Full Faculty, Clinical

- Educating, training, and supervising doctoral students (G years 2-4) to provide the basic foundations of clinical practice and prepare for a pre-doctoral internship in psychology.

August, 2005 – December, 2005

Porterville College, California

Adjunct Faculty

- Instructed the course “Psychology of Personal & Social Adjustment.” This was an advanced psychology course in the junior college instructional system that was part of the psychology Associate of Arts degree program. Among other topics, this course covered the psychological factors associated with physical illness, motivation, decision making, interpersonal attraction, psychopathology, and therapeutic interventions.

PUBLICATIONS & OTHER PROFESSIONAL INVOLVEMENT

---

Doctoral dissertation committee - The Reid Technique: False confessions and Juror Verdicts (Jaleesa Freitas 2015-2016)

Neighborhood Church Lay-Counseling outreach program. Pro bono work providing church counselors with mental health education through teaching and supervision on topics related to mental health and knowing when to refer someone for professional help (2013-2019).

The Cognistat: A normative data analysis of the Neurobehavioral Cognitive Status Examination by Deutinger, Aron Michael Psy.D., Alliant International University, Fresno, 2007, AAT 3270939

Authored grant proposal to be submitted to The Fletcher Jones Foundation on behalf of the W. Gary Cannon Psychological Service Center (2007)

Guest lecture on eating disorders and their treatment at Fresno City College (Deutinger & Yang, 2005).

Guest presentation on therapeutic interventions and assessment services offered by the W. Gary Cannon Psychological Service Center at University Medical Center, Fresno California (Bassman, Deutinger, Egeline, Merrin, & Yang, 2005).

Orientation on Family Court/Child Custody Assessments provided to members of the Family Court Services Division at the Fresno County Superior Court (Zimmerman & Deutinger, 2005).

Served on the Admissions Committee for Alliant International University (CSPP) reviewing application materials and co-conducting prospective student interviews (2004).